

OUR FAVORITE HIKES - No 23 -- RELOCATED SECTION OF THE HORSE-SHOE TRAIL - PART 4 OF 4

Part 4 takes you from the junction with the Water Tank Trail to the junction with the Appalachian Trail.

At this point our trail follows the old stage coach road from Harrisburg to Pine Grove. It is a fairly level stretch, located in a saddle between Sharp and Stony Mountains.

It parallels the Devil's Race Course, one of Pennsylvania's Geological wonders. After about three miles, the trail slowly, then faster descents, turns left abruptly, and crosses the Devils Race Course, then at the ruins of Rattling Run Village it turns left, and climbs Stony Mountain to its terminus with the Appalachian Trail.
